AT SHEPHERD UNIVERSITY

New American theater begins at the Contemporary American Theater Festival. Proud to call Shepherdstown, WV home, CATF has been nationally recognized for over three decades for its impact on the American theater.

Since its founding in 1991, the Festival has produced 144 new plays, including 66 world premieres and 11 commissions. Over 50% of the Festival's plays were written by women. Plays produced at CATF have gone on to have robust lives including regional productions, Broadway and Off-Broadway productions, and film adaptations.

Named as one of the top theater festivals in the world, by publications such as The New York Times, American Theatre, and World Guide, the Contemporary American Theater Festival shapes the future of American theater. Each summer, the Festival produces a repertory of bold, new plays that spotlight daring and diverse stories, in a truly fearless fashion.

In a supportive and inclusive environment, CATF celebrates the dynamic between the artist, the audience, and the work. Comprised of lectures, stage readings, and more, the talktheater series provides opportunities to discuss issues and themes raised in the season's plays. This vibrant pairing of contemporary plays and invigorating discourse fosters a unique and unforgettable experience.

INVESTING in the arts means investing in your community.

"The Contemporary American Theater Festival is a significant contributor to the region's economy - one that generates $5.86 million in total economic activity. This economic impact study sends a strong signal that when we support the Contemporary American Theater Festival, we not only enhance our quality of life, but we also invest in the region's economic well-being."

-AMERICANS FOR THE ARTS,
ARTS & ECONOMIC PROSPERITY 5

"Arts activity creates thousands of direct and indirect jobs and generates billions in government and business revenues. The arts also make our cities a destination for tourists, help attract and retain businesses, and play an important role in the economic revitalization of cities and the vibrancy of our neighborhoods."
